

IT STARTS WITH OUR MISSION:

The mission of Goodwill of North Georgia is to put people to work.

HOW IT WORKS:

We collect donated goods at 58 donation centers and 58 stores. Then we sell those items to bargain hunters in our Goodwill stores. We use those dollars to operate 13 career centers and to support job training and placement services offered free of charge to tens of thousands of North Georgia job seekers.

Last fiscal year we...

Our facilities management business, Goodwill Industries of North Georgia, maintains jobs for more than 200 people with severe disabilities.

Last fiscal year those team members maintained more than 4 million sq. ft. of office space daily at nine federal government and commercial contract sites.

GEOGRAPHY:

We serve a 45-county territory in the northern portion of Georgia. There are 3 other Goodwill agencies based in the state of Georgia.

HISTORY:

Established in 1925, we are a member of Goodwill Industries International, an association of 164 Goodwill agencies in North America and 14 Goodwills in other parts of the world.

At more than 90 years old, we are one of the oldest nonprofits in the Atlanta metro area and the 8th largest nonprofit. (source: 2016-2017 Atlanta Business Chronicle Book of Lists)

The first Goodwill of Atlanta store opened in 1937. We continued to grow our organization by opening 5 new stores in 2016, for a total of 58 stores in operation.

IMPACT:

Through our career centers and job training programs, we assist veterans, people with disabilities, youth, single parents, the under-employed, people with criminal backgrounds and anyone else looking for work.

Working with more than 5,000 employer partners, 39 public sector partners, 93 private foundation partners and 65 nonprofit partners, Goodwill has an economic impact of more than $400 million annually.

Nearly 200,000 hours of job training were provided to job seekers in 2016.

HONORS & CERTIFICATIONS:

We own two LEED® certified stores and are seeking certification for two more facilities.

Our donor services department became the first donated goods business to earn ISO 9001, 14001 and 18001 registrations.

In 2014, Goodwill was named one of America's Most Inspiring Companies by Forbes Magazine.
